Overview

Are your sentences long and rambling? Do you struggle to develop your ideas logically within a paragraph? In this half-day workshop, Dr Marina Hurley shows you how to design effective sentences, without needing to learn grammar terms, and different ways to structure your paragraphs. This workshop includes practical exercises that allow you to work on your own project(s).

Learn how to

- Design sentences that present ideas in a straightforward manner
- Link sentences together to form a logical development of ideas
- Design paragraphs that both stand alone and link to each other

What you take away

- Improved sentence and paragraph construction skills
- Rewritten drafts of your own work that you complete during the workshop

Resources provided

- The Writing Clear Science workshop handbook
- A workshop participation certificate
- Worksheets and templates for future use
- Recommended reading list
